LIBERTY BONDS

Says the Chicago Tribune:—Liberty bonds should be at par. It should be the immediate business of Congress to put the bonds at par. Too many Americans have come to the point of thinking they have been bilked.

Gross overstatement and extravagant promises are directly chargeable to McAdoo, the former secretary of the treasury. In his eagerness to float bonds McAdoo made use of every grandiloquent phrase.

Depending upon the authority promised to repose in McAdoo the press and public speakers carried these vain promises to the people. The Tribune assumes its share of the blame. It accepted Mr. McAdoo's promises as the assurances of an official who knew what he was talking about.

McAdoo's promises all have failed. The bonds have slumped so badly that persons in moderate circumstances find themselves seriously handicapped. The slump in price has resulted an enormous get-rich-quick movement, the people readily parting with their securities in response to the bland promises of sharks and the fear that unless the government securities are disposed of their value may soon fall to naught.

In remains for Congress to make good on the vain and extravagant promises made by McAdoo. McAdoo assured the investor that the bonds would be worth dollar for dollar. They should be worth dollar for dollar.

We propose to insist upon this point in the belief that the confidence of the people in the government must not be shaken. If there has been bilking it should not be charged to the government, but to overzealous officials.

AN IMPRESSIVE LESSON

The military occupancy of Constantinople is likely to make more impression on the Turkish than a whole volume of notes, protests and threats are something the Ottoman mind can understand. The visible power of his judges is thrust directly under his nose, and he has a close-up of its potency. He sees that he is really at the mercy of the Entente, if it cares to exert itself, and he cannot but help gain a clear conception that it is prepared so to do.

The latest move by Great Britain, France and Italy ought to have a beneficial effect throughout the whole of the Near East. It is made under circumstances that relieve it of the taint of selfish aggressiveness, and it cannot help but tend to revive the prestige that was badly injured when the powers gave up their first program with regard to Constantinople and appeared to be yielding to the threat of a Mohammedan uprising.—Detroit Free Press.

NEW STYLE IN DRESSES

It is hardly within the province of mere man to discuss with any degree of authority the new dress models which France is said to have sent to America for the approval of our women, says the Dayton, O., News. But even mere man, after reading some of the descriptions and suggestions cabled to the United States, cannot refrain from wondering how our wives, daughters and sweethearts are going to look in these new-fangled creations. Mark you—dresses shortened to the knees, cutting of bodices to below the waistline, abolition of sleeves and the adoption of "phantom stockings," that is a sight for our grandmothers to behold. We are not criticizing, because it is not our place to criticize, we are wondering. Man still retains the privilege of wondering and living. It seems he is destined to be amazed and startled.

WANT FACTS

An investigation of the Federal Board for Vocational Education is contemplated in a resolution introduced in the House by Congressman Simeon D. Fess of Ohio. Many members of Congress of the conduct of the Board and its apparent failure to rehabilitate wounded veterans according to the intent of Congress as expressed in the act.

ads to the controversy an opportunity for a fair hearing.

Some politicians think the American people are going to decide the momentous political issues of the day by letting the "wet" and "dry" question determine the election. No doubt! There are too many real issues and the American people are thinking chiefly of them.

PAINS SO BAD STAYED IN BED

Young Mrs. Johnston Had Miserable Time Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was very sick for some time with pain in my sides and back and I could not do my work at times. The pain in my side was so bad. I would have to stay in bed for days at a time. My mother-in-law had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and recommended it to me. It cured my pains and I am now able to do all my work. You can publish my testimonial and I hope the compound will do the good it has done me."—Mrs. Anna Johnston, 205 E. 41st Street, Chicago, Ill.

For forty years women have been telling how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. The accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is made from native roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

OUR Pre-Easter Display

Surpasses All Previous Efforts

Quality goods at Value prices

You who are in the market for a coat, suit or dress should bring your needs to this store—not because we want you to—but because it's to your own interest and advantage to do so.

Realizing that prices are high we have marked our garments much lower than the same character of merchandise is usually marked—we'd rather move the garments while the moving is good.

Some especially good coats and suits have been added to the line during the past few days. Best of all our garments are exclusive—in many instances just one of a garment is stocked; thereby giving our patrons that much wanted feature—individuality. All we ask is for you to come in and compare our values.

Easter Blouses Ready

Yes—we are quite ready with a line that offers you wide variety of style and materials.

Our showing of the popular French voiles georgette crepe modale in regular and extra sizes.

Our blouses are made right—for service and fit. The values are in keeping with this store's policy of "good goods at the right prices."

Come make your selections early while our showing is most complete.

Spring Fashions in Boys' Suits

Just take a look at them!

Every one is made excellent. Many of the models are hand-tailored. The materials embrace a variety of tweeds, serges, mixtures in Norfolk, Box and Belted styles.

Perfect Fitting Skirts

The separate skirt finds an important place in our dept. The latest models are assembled for your consideration. Scores of new creations now await you in plaids as well as plain fabrics.

Thousands of Yards of Beautiful Voiles

Last year we thought we had a regular line of voiles—at that we had the best line in Charleroi, Pa. This season's showing far surpasses our last year's efforts—the pattern ideas are so appealing and the color combinations are beautiful. When you come to see the line you'll have the same selecting advantages as can be had in the larger cities. Our prices range from 65c to $2.50 the yard, with hosts of good things at $1, $1.25 and $1.50 the yard.

PATIENTS ISSUE FRAUDULENT DEBTORS' ATTACHMENT ON FIXTURES

Seek To Recover Money Paid To The Associated Doctors

LEVY IS MADE ON PROPERTY

Antonio Kluczbewicz, of 104 Fallowfield avenue and Mrs. Virginia Carazzi of Fredricktown, appeared before Justice of the Peace Paul R. Nutt on Friday afternoon and swore out fraudulent debtors' attachments against the owners of the office equipment of the Associated Doctors, formerly located on McKean avenue, but which were closed last Monday afternoon by the Charleroi Board of Health.

Mr. Kluczbewicz makes a claim for $125.00, alleged to have been paid to the associated doctors, and Mrs. Carazzi for $17.10. The two plaintiffs above named filed bonds in sums double the amount claimed, and this morning Constable Corey served attachment papers on the property, which may be sold if necessary in order to pay the claims.

Other claims made, but for which bonds had not yet been filed were those of Mary Kovak, of Vesta No. 7, for $52.00, Ambrose Loveardy of Brownsville for $70.00, and Tom Komlenic of Allison, Fayette county, for $110.00. The latter also claimed that he paid $1.50 per week for medicine from the second of December up until last week. From developments which have been made since these medical offices were closed, it appeared that a consultation card was issued to each patient, on which the fee was stipulated. On the back of the card the patients would be credited with payments made. On one of these cards appeared the name of Mr. Cameron who apparently was in charge of the office and who performed at least some of the work so it is alleged.

Further developments also indicate that the Associated Doctors worked principally among foreigners and that their patients were located to a great extent at some point outside of Charleroi. From what John Hornack, who distributed circulars, said, he evidently made trips along the upper valley and in and around the mine workings at Brownsville, with advertising matter for these Associated Doctors, and he appeared to have obtained results.

There may be a contest when it comes to selling the furniture and fixtures which were in the offices as a man named Shifer came from Pittsburgh with a bill of sale alleged to have been signed by Dr. Marquard, took possession of the various articles and had them stored in a local warehouse. However, the matter of ownership and the right of the plaintiffs to levy will doubtless be ascertained before the property is sold.

NEW BOAT WILL SOON BE IN COMMISSION

The William Whigham, of the Carnegie fleet, now being outfitted for service under direction of Capt. Clark Sheets, will be placed in commission on the Monongahela river in about two weeks. The Duquesne of the same line, which has been on the Coal Valley marine ways for some time undergoing repairs, will be placed in service next week. Then the company will put the propeller, now known as the Clairton, but which to have its name changed to Kanawha, pulled out for a general overhauling. A new propeller will be placed and repairs and changes made to the hull. The new Clairton will be completed in about two months.

When Pershing Learned To Signal from Carroll Twp. Boy

The following interesting article from the Arizona Republic, of Phoenix, Ariz., tells how Robert Q. Grant, son of Mrs. Eliza Grant, and a former resident of Carroll township, near Eldora Park, became acquainted with Gen. John J. Pershing:

"Thirty-five years ago a young army lieutenant arrived from West Point at Ft. Stanton, New Mexico, at that time a lonely army post 125 miles from the nearest railroad. The newly arrived officer found that among soldiers detailed to outlying points from the fort, communication was largely by means of wig-wagging and heliographing.

"In those days the U. S. weather bureau was incorporated into the army as a part of the signal corps. In order to brush upon the common methods of communication the young lieutenant from West Point sought the services of the head of the weather bureau at Ft. Stanton. In that way Robert Q. Grant, now in charge of the U. S. Weather Bureau here, first met and became familiarly acquainted with General John J. Pershing. The young lieutenant of 35 years ago is the world's hero of today and it was to Robert Q. Grant that the same young lieutenant appealed for instruction in the art of communication at Fort Stanton.

"The readiness with which Lieutenant Pershing grasped the details of wig-wagging and heliographing impressed him as a man with an unusually clear mind and adaptability to conditions. In those days signaling was a matter of vital importance. It was a time when every one at the fort had to be prepared for an attack from the Indians of the vicinity at any time. Our warnings of an uprising of the redskins came from the wig-wag signals or the rapid telegraphic flashes of the heliograph.

"Mr. Grant explained that the heliograph system of signaling was done by mirror reflections from the sun. By covering and uncovering the mirror in rapid succession the operator flashed reflections in the telegraphic code.

"There were many times when we had to leave our work in the weather bureau to go out and fight Indians," Mr. Grant said. "But as far removed as we were from civilization the soldiers were always very circumspect in their appearance. When General Pershing was in Phoenix last week his uniform was not pressed any more nearly his boots polished any brighter or his whole personal appearance no more clean cut and trim than back in the days when he soldiered at a fort more than a hundred miles from a railroad. The General Pershing that was really with us was very much like the Lieutenant Pershing of the Indian fighting days."

WONDERFUL PROGRAM AT COYLE THEATRE

The largest crowds which have been attracted to the Coyle Theatre this week have witnessed the finest program of pictures shown here in some time. All good class wholesome entertainment that would receive the approval of the most critical audiences.

It is not difficult to understand why people who for years have been regular attendants at legitimate stage productions, without giving any great amount of thought to the term of "amusement," are becoming regular patrons at the motion picture theatre throughout the country, after seeing some of their favorite plays pictured they begin to appreciate the value of motion pictures and their former opinions and prejudices are swept aside.

In keeping with the dignified policy maintained by the Coyle Theatre in the past, only high class pictures will be shown, the kind of amusement that will appeal to the entire family. Pictures will be selected at all times with the best interests of the patrons always in mind. Mr. Coyle states that, "My patrons requests shall be my guidance in selecting amusement; they can feel assured that any picture that contains the class of amusement demanded by them, will be shown at our theatre."

"Social arrangements are being made with the leading producers of motion pictures that will enable us to offer to the people of this vicinity the same class of pictures that are shown in the largest theatres throughout the country.

COMMISSIONERS RECEIVING NO BIDS FOR COUNTY BONDS

NO GRACE ALLOWED ON DOG LICENSES

County Commissioners are acting illegally in extending the time to secure dog licenses, according to an opinion rendered on Friday by Deputy Attorney General Frank M. Hunter. In several counties dog owners were granted an extension from January 15 to April 1. The opinion says that "owners of dogs who failed to take out licenses subsequent to January 15 are guilty of a violation of the law and subject to prosecution."

May Cause Delay in Beginning of Work on Several Roads

RESULT IS A DISAPPOINTMENT

Plans of the county commissioners for constructing roads in various parts of the county were somewhat upset on Friday when not a single bid was received for the proposed issue of $160,000 worth of road bonds. The bids had been advertised and all preparations had been made for the usual number of bond buyers, but the latter failed to put in appearance.

The only recourse left to the commissioners now is for them to re-advertise the bonds with the hope that during the time intervening some buyer will be interested or can be interested in the purchase of the bonds.

The commissioners had planned to make as early a start as possible on the road projects over which they have control, and the fact that the bonds offered on Friday were a source of disappointment, as it will cause some delay in starting the work.

At the present time it appears that bonds are not popular on the market and it is supposed that this is the reason there were no bidders for the $160,000 worth offered yesterday.

The failure of bond buyers to appear will not only be a disappointment to the commissioners, but to many people of the county, who had anticipated that work on a certain number of roads which have been contracted for would be under way just as soon as weather conditions would permit. The failure to sell the bonds, for which the commissioners are in no wise responsible, is apt to delay the beginning of these improvements, which are so badly needed at the present time.

RUSSIAN IS HELD FOR MURDER OF HIS WIFE

Lucian near McMurray on the 17th of March, as a result of injuries inflicted by her husband, the jury returned a verdict that she came to her death from hemorrhages as a result of injuries inflicted by her husband, Andrew Nichipouk, and recommended that he be held for the action of the grand jury.
